

JMS DAYTONA Joins PASS and Oxford SLM Contingency Programs

Naples, Maine — April 8, 2026 — Officials with the Pro All Stars Series (PASS) and Oxford Plains Speedway (OPS) announced today that JMS DAYTONA has been named an additional contingency sponsor for both PASS Super Late Model touring series and the Oxford Plains Speedway Super Late Model weekly series.

As part of the program, JMS DAYTONA will award three CD-1 SS Ignition Kits (PN: 6000-6701K) to the 2026 PASS National Champion, PASS North Champion, and the Oxford Plains Speedway Super Late Model Champion during year-end banquets.

In addition to the year-end awards, JMS DAYTONA will support both PASS SLM tours and the OPS weekly series by awarding the ninth-place finisher in each race a $50 product certificate, redeemable towards any JMS DAYTONA product.

“We’re proud to partner with PASS and Oxford Plains Speedway to support drivers all season long,” said JMS DAYTONA representative Chris Johnson. “Our focus is simple: keep teams on track and performing with an ignition system that delivers consistent, reliable performance.”

JMS Performance Group designs and manufactures high-performance electronic components for the automotive and powersports industries. Its products are engineered to improve performance, reliability, and safety across a wide range of modern vehicles.

The PASS National Championship season opened March 14 at Hickory Motor Speedway with a 200-lap event won by Jimmy Renfrew. The PASS North Series opens Sunday, April 19 at New Hampshire Motor Speedway as part of a combined North and National Series event. Post time is 11:00 a.m. Oxford Plains Speedway begins its 2026 season on Sunday, April 26 at 2:00 p.m.
