

Velocita By Little Webb's Partners with PASS and NESS for Safety Gear Awards

Naples, Maine and Epping, NH — 4/15/2026 — Officials with the Pro All Stars Series (PASS) today announced an agreement with Velocita by Little Webb's to provide over $7,000 in safety gear to drivers in the PASS North Series and the New England Super Modified Series (NESS). As a part of the new agreement, both 2026 series champions will receive a Custom Pro Firesuit Package that will include a fire suit, shoes, gloves, and a gear bag.

“We are thrilled to partner with a company like Velocita by Little Webb's provide our champions with some new safety gear,” said PASS president Tom Mayberry. “This year, we have put a big emphasis on working with companies that will reward our racers, and this will really help that cause.”

The Velocita by Little Webb's Custom Pro Firesuit Package has a retail value of $2,225 for each of the two champions. In addition, Velocita by Little Webb's will provide the runner-up in both series' final standings with a certificate for 50% off any custom fire suit. Finally, each third-place points finisher will receive a $250 certificate good towards any fire suit over $750, making the total prize pool in excess of $7,000.

Velocita, known for its high-quality racing suits and safety gear, has built a strong reputation for combining performance, protection, and customization for drivers at all levels of motorsports. The partnership with PASS and NESS will continue the growing footprint of Velocita by Little Webb's throughout the Northeast.

The PASS North Series begins this Saturday, April 18, at New Hampshire Motor Speedway as part of the Northeast Classic. The tour will visit six tracks throughout New England as part of a 16-event schedule, which includes marquee events such as the 53rd Oxford 250, Celebration of America 300, Oktoberfest, and Chummy Brown Memorial 144.

NESS kicks off its fifth season on Saturday, May 9, at Star Speedway and will conclude its 15-race run at Lee USA Speedway's Oktoberfest. In between, the big block supermodifieds will headline the Star Classic and Ollie Silva Midsummer Classic, while also being part of the World Series of Speedway Racing, Vermont Milk Bowl Weekend, and more.
