Barre, VT & Naples, ME — After pouring over schedules Monday, Officials with the Milton CAT American-Canadian Tour (ACT) and the Pro All Stars Series (PASS) have confirmed Sunday, August 16 for the updated Riverside Speedway event following the Sunday, May 31 rain postponement.

With the two touring division's own schedules, coupled with those of the five tracks they oversee and Riverside Speedway's schedule, it became clear that Sunday, August 16 was the closest available date for all four divisions.

"Tom (Mayberry) and I would've loved to get the Riverside date in sooner, but our schedules are already packed as it is," said ACT managing partner Cris Michaud. "August 16 works for all four divisions and we're incredibly thankful to the Humphrey Family that had to make their own moves to make this date work for us."

Set for Sunday, August 16, the Milton CAT American-Canadian Tour will return to Riverside Speedway & Adventure Park for the Great North Woods 150 alongside the ACT Twin-State Flying Tiger Series 75, the Riverside 150 for the PASS Super Late Models and 50 laps for the PASS Modifieds!
